Amar De Nuevo

Xenophile 4054

This famed Chilean ensemble, which for 30 years has expertly interwoven a multitude of musical strains from various regions of Latin America, returns with perhaps one of its most commercially viable sets yet. A tasteful amalgam of Latin American grooves from Peru, Colombia, and Mexico often set to intensely impassioned, romantic verse by Chilean lyricist Patricio Manns, this ear-perking package features a trio of slowly swaying boleros—"Esta Eterna Costumbre," "La Carta Del Adiós," and "Antes De Amar De Nuevo"—that deserve airplay on U.S. Latino radio as well as on noncommercial stations, where the group likely will earn notice with more folkloric-flavored entries such as the Peruvian waltzes "El Faro" and "La Sombra," plus the vallenato number "La Fiesta Eres Tú."
